VACANCY:
Pocopson Township Planning Commission

The Pocopson Township Planning Commission is seeking a commissioner to fill a vacancy. The term of appointment for the replacement will run until December 31, 2020.

The Planning Commission is an advisory board to the Board of Supervisors. The eight members review all Subdivision and Land Development plans for accuracy and to determine if they meet all Subdivision and Zoning Ordinance requirements. They also review Zoning, Subdivision, and Code Ordinance changes and all applications for Variances and Special Exceptions. The Planning Commission makes recommendations to the Board of Supervisors for approval.

Meetings are held in the Township Building at 740 Denton Hollow Road on the first Wednesday of each month at 7:30 p.m. The Planning Commission does not meet in August or December.

If you would like to be considered for an appointment to the Planning Commission, please forward a letter and resume or description of your background to:
